PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

NEW PRICE & IMMEDIATE OCCUPANCY

Do you need to be close to the I83 corridor for travel to Baltimore and/or Harrisburg for work or quick access to airports? Are you on the road more than you are at home? This townhouse will be perfect for you....and not just because of convenience. An end unit offers more windows and light. As you enter the home through the front door, you step on ceramic tile..a mini foyer. Than you see beautiful hardwood floors, which you find in all of the rooms, except kitchen and baths, which are ceramic tile. The living room features a bow window, a gas log fireplace, with brick hearth and surround, and wood mantel. What a great kitchen, will be your reaction, when you see it. All of the appliances convey, and is perfect for someone who wants to have a quick meal, or cook up a gourmet dinner to serve in your dining room. The seller has stated she is sad to be leaving her kitchen, since she has it just the way she wants it-she just finished the unique trey ceiling. The dining room is bright and airy. Open the doors and step out on the balcony to just enjoy your new home. Want to hide away and pretend you are not home? Easy to do if you go down to the private family room. It is cable ready...throw in a cozy sofa, reading light, beverage of your choice and hide! The upstairs is a pleasant surprise, too. Both bedrooms are so big, you will have trouble deciding which to use for yourself. The seller had a neat idea for a large walk-in closet, which wasn't needed. She converted it into a computer office. A must see! Add in a 2 car garage, entering directly into the home, central air, condo fee for mowing, shoveling, and exterior maintenance and you are set!
