You will find all of the rooms are large, there is a lots of storage space, and there is wood floors under most of the wall to wall carpets, although the seller does not warrant the condition. Enter into the foyer and notice the Victorian accents that are carried throughout the home. Two formal living rooms allow you to place furniture so you and your visitors can enjoy each others company. Walk through to the formal dining room...large enough for over-sized dining table, sideboards, servers, etc. There are built-in areas where you can show off your collectibles, your fine china, etc. Want to get away for some quiet time? Enjoy the charming sitting room, which would also be a perfect library. Be sure to notice the unique and attractive ceiling. At the rear of the home is the kitchen which includes all of the appliances. The placement of the kitchen is great, since it is close to the best surprise in the home. Step down to your "Paris Bistro". A wonderful extra large screened in patio. The perfect place to entertain, enjoy your morning coffee, or curl up at the end of a stressful day with a glass of wine and a good book. You will immediately de-stress as you look out on your low maintenance back yard filled with color from annuals,perennials, and lots of coverage. Lots of mature landscaping and the trickling of your small pond helps anyone relax. There will be no question who will be asked to host many small and large gatherings of family and friends. Of course, you need to have a place to lay your head at night. FIVE bedrooms! The second floor offers three and the third level has two. Front bedrooms have bay windows and/or window seats.
