PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

A great starter home. This comfortable three bedroom, one and a half bath split level is close to several parks, one to picnic at and one to watch youth football and baseball, as well as fireworks on several occasions. It is also close to the new indoor/outdoor swimming complex. Sit in your living room and feel the warmth through the large picture window. The eat in kitchen is large and features beautiful oak cabinets and it comes with all appliances. Two bedrooms are on the second level and the third bedroom has the privacy of the third level. The lower level has a family room, which can be used as a game room, an office, or whatever you need for it to be. The half bath is on this level. The rear of the home features a brick patio...you can have lots of picnics and with the level yard, it is a great place for outdoor games. This home sits in an established neighborhood and is close to Rt 30 & I83 for commuters to Baltimore and south or Harrisburg and north.
